

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

A LIST OF THE DESCENDANTS

OF

THOMAS JEWELL,

OF BRAINTREE,

TO THE READER.

THE following pages are designed as a Register rather than History; in which we propose to give statistics of the descendants of Thomas Jewell, in a convenient and condensed form, so far as we have been able to obtain the records. Our utmost care and vigilance will not prevent the appearance of some blanks and errors, which those who have failed to furnish the desired data may regret; but not more than ourselves.

Any name can be found by consulting the index and numbers. A running title at the top will show the line and generation. Heads of families marked by a star, are repeated in regular order. Abbreviations will be readily understood: as b. for born; m. for married; un. for unmarried; w. for widow; d. for died; rd. for resided; r. for residence, &c. Dates will be considered Old Style previous to Sept. 3, 1752, called Sept. 14th.

Our lists contain over eighteen hundred, and there may be as many more that we can not trace to our progenitor. George Jewell was at Saco, Me., in 1637, and Samuel at Boston in 1655; they may have been brethren or kinsmen of Thomas. Nathaniel of Boston (1694) and George sen., of Elizabethtown, N. J., were brothers, and probably related to the above. We find some in Me.; some in N. H. (which descend from Mark); some along the Hudson River; in Pa.; in N. J., and at the South and West, that have Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Harmon and Robert to their fathers; and some who are the children of Richard, which came from Devonshire, Eng., in 1774.

This edition is small, therefore expensive; but sufficient for all who apply in season, and at the price named in the Circular. We are happy to form an acquaintance with so extensive a branch of our common humanity. May this work tend to facilitate our friendship, and increase our usefulness.

PLINY JEWELL, Hartford, Conn.

THE JEWELL REGISTER.

"John Joyell Bachelor of Devynetie of the vnyversitie of Oxforde and at this p'sent by the grace of god byashoppe of Sarum unto whome by Declara'tion of ancient letters patentes the Chauncellorshippe of the most noble order of the garter is incident as more playnlie appeareth by the saide letters patent now in my registers recorded in this p'sent visitation made by me William Herrye al's Clarenceul's king of arms."

Extracted from the Visitation Book of the County of Wilts, made in the year 1565, now remaining in the College of arms, London, this 2d day of March, 1859.

THO. WM. KING, York Herald.

1 THOMAS JEWELL was probably born in England, not far from the year 1600. We have been unable positively to connect him with any European family; but various circumstances coincide to render it most likely that he was from the same original stock as Bishop John Jewell, who was born in the north of Devonshire in 1522, and died in 1571.

The name has been written Jule, Joyell, Jewel, then Jewell.

The first authentic account of Thomas is in the early part of 1639, but little more than 18 years after the landing of the Pilgrims at Plymouth; and shows that he had then a wife and one child, probably a daughter. The Boston record is as follows:

"The 24th day, 2d mo., 1639. Also there is granted to Thomas Jewell, of the Mount, Miller, for three heads, 12 acres, upon the covenant of three shillings per acre."

This "Mount," was Mt. Wollaston; first settled in 1625, and named from Capt. Wollaston; incorporated as Braintree in 1640; Quincy was set off in 1792, and Randolph in 1793. The tract was laid to Boston by the General Court or Legislature, in 1634; and Dec. 11th of that year the inhabitants after a lecture chose seven men who should divide these lands to those that might improve them, at the rate of 4 acres to each person in the family; gratuitously to citizens of Boston, and for three shillings per acre to others. Thus we find, "24th day, 12th mo., 1640. Granted to Henry Adams (a progenitor of the President,) for 10 heads, 40 acres, upon the same covenant of three shillings per acre."

The following is a copy of his will, as witnessed by Wm. Scant and Hannah H. Harbor. "The will of Thomas Jewell of Brantray, while he is yet in perfect memory. My Soule I commit into the hands of Almighty God in ye mediation of Jesus Christ, and my body to the dust. All ye Estate wh^{ch} God hath given me I doe give to my wife for to be hers as long as she is a widow, and so remains; but if she shall marry, then to divide it into three parts; and two parts to be divided among my children, and the third to be hers. I doe by this will give power to these two my friends herein mentioned, namely William Needam and Tho. Foster, to take the care and oversight of all this my estate for my wife and children good, according to your best wisdom to be ordered.

dated the 10th, 2d month, 1654."

The Probate records show that administration was granted to Grisell, the widow of Thomas Jewell, July 21, 1654; but on the 5th Oct. 1655, she being about to marry Humphrey Griggs, William Needham and Thomas Foster above named, were appointed executors (probably de bonis non.) Griggs agreed to bring up Jewell's children, of which there were several, both sons and daughters, and all under age. She was soon left again a widow; as administration was granted to Grisell Griggs, on the estate of her late husband Humphrey Griggs, Aug. 18, 1657."

FIRST GENERATION.

"Farmer's Genealogical Register," p. 162, says, "Thomas Jewell of Brantry (Braintree) had sons, Joseph, b. 24th April, 1642; Nathaniel, b. 15th April, 1648; and several other children." The names of his daughters are unknown, and uncounted here. As one of the sons that lived to rear families received the honored name of his father, we shall place him at the head of the list, although he may have been the younger. By this arrangement the three sons will head three separate lines, and be numbered as follows.

- *2 Thomas, b. in Hingham, Mass.
- *3 Joseph, b. Apr. 24, 1642; d. Stow, Mass., time not known.
- *4 Nathaniel, b. Apr. 15, 1648; d. Plainfield, Ct., March, 1712.

(On the final settlement of the boundary line between New Hampshire and Massachusetts, that part of Amesbury where Thomas Jewell lived, and where his descendants reside, fell to New Hampshire, and is now South Hampton.) This or some other Thomas m. Ruth Badger Feb. 17, 1702; and it seems from the following record, that he died soon after. "John Davis and Ruth Jewell, wid. of Thomas Jewell jr. were m. Dec. 22, 1707, by Rev. Thomas Wells." Thomas Jewell was several times tithing-man; had

- *5 Thomas, b. Aug. 21, 1676; drowned at Kingsborough, Mass., in 1723.

- *11 Nathaniel, b. about 1712-14; lived in Dunstable.
- *12 Benoni, b. lived and d. in Dunstable, time unknown.
- 13 A daughter b. and d. not known.

It appears that the wid. Martha had one third of the estate of Thomas, Nathaniel two fifths of the remainder, Benoni also two fifths, and the daughter one fifth. Nathaniel sold his portion for £95, to Thomas Harwood, March 29, 1736; he being then of age and unmarried. See Liber 88, p. 325, Middlesex, Mass.

 *227 Ebenezer Huse, b. Dec. 13, 1818; killed, as engineer, by the giving way of a R. R. bridge, near Joliet, Ill., Feb. 7, 1857.
 "He Died at His Post.—A sad, but beautiful and touching scene was witnessed at the accident at the Du Page Bridge. On the morning after the accident, the slow tolling of a bell was heard. On looking to see whence it came, it was discovered to proceed from the engine as it lay submerged in the water. The waves as they foamed and surged over the sunken engine swayed the bell, which alone with the smoke-pipe appeared above the water and caused it to give a low tolling sound.
 When the engine was raised from the water, the engineer was found in a standing posture, with his stiff, cold, icy hand firmly grasping the throttle valve, as though amid the thick darkness, he had discovered the perilous condition of the train, and had sprung to avert the ruin. But it was too late—the engine and train, with its precious freight of life and property, went down, and during the dreary night, the engine-bell and the mad rushing waters rang out a solemn requiem for the dead."

Line of Joseph.

SECOND GENERATION.

3 JOSEPH JEWELL. Some have called his name John; but we think erroneously, for reasons such as the following, viz.

John Jewell's name does not occur in any known records of that early date; and Farmer gives it as Joseph.

The records of Stow date the birth of John's children from 1726 to 1732. This is hardly reconcilable with the idea that he was the son of Thomas who died in 1654; but it is perfectly consistent with the fact that John was the son of Joseph, and grandson of Thomas.

There is a deed recorded at East Cambridge, Mass., bearing date July 17, 1694, whereby Richard Cheever of Boston, conveyed to Joseph Jewell of Sudbury, a piece of land and a corn mill thereon, situated in Sudbury. In another deed of Nov. 27, 1719, Joseph Jewell conveys his house, barn, mill and land, which he had bought of Cheever, to his son John. Joseph and Isabel both joined in the deed; by which John was to maintain them, and pay certain sums to his brothers.

It appears that Joseph first lived in Charlestown, and kept the ferry between that place and Boston; that his son Joseph assisted him; that when about 50 he removed to Stow, and owned a grist mill, which went for a long time (up to 1815 at least) by the name of "Jewell's Mill." This old mill-site is now (1860) occupied by a Carpet Factory, and the stream is the dividing line between Sudbury and Stow.

Joseph m. Martha — about 1670; also m. Isabel —, who lived to be over 103. The Middlesex Records show that Joseph died previous to Sept. 2, 1736, when he would have been 94; had

- *584 Joseph, b. June, 1673; d. Dudley, Mass., in 1766, aged 93.
- 585 Martha, b. July 25, 1675; m. Potter, and had no children.
- 586 Another dau. m. a man by the name of Townsend, of Boston, Mass.

587 The records of Stow state that William Skinner and Mary Jewell, (supposed another dau. of Joseph,) both of Stow, were m. Feb. 10, 1722.

*588 John, b. unknown; d. Stow, Mass., Feb. 5, 1781, quite aged.

589 James, b. unknown; is said to have been the youngest son by his father's second wife, which was probably Isabel. By various records we learn the following history.

"Jan. 3, 1712. James Jewell, of Sudbury, and 8 others, bought 200 acres; also a 30 acre right; also 440 acres on the west side of Nashua River on Salmon Brook, of Rev. Wm. Brattle, of Cambridge." "Nov. 19, 1718. James Jewell, of Dunstable, bought one half of a 550 acre lot, adjoining the land bought by James Jewell and 8 others, of Edmund Goffee, of Cambridge, for £150." "Feb. 10, 1720. James Jewell, of Dunstable, sold to Joseph Kendall, of do. one half of the 550 acres of land said Jewell bought of Col. Goffee." "Dec. 20, 1729. James bought land in Lunenburg." "May 9, 1730. James Jewell, of Lunenburg, sold to Wm. Richardson, of Malden, 200 acres in the south part of Lunenburg, for £47." In 1732 the town of Winchester, N. H., was granted by the General Court of Mass. (which at that time claimed jurisdiction), to James Jewell and 63 others, citizens of Lunenburg. He went to Winchester; as we find he joined the Cong. Ch. there June 5, 1737. It appears that he never married, and finally died at Petersham, Mass.
